Adjustable breast implants
How to use the injection ports
Package containing injection ports

Large and small injection port

Steel connector
And plastic connector
The tubing on the injection port is shortened

The steel connector is used
The connector is inserted into the tube
The connector is secured with a 3/0 silk tie
Air is removed from the expander
The tubing on the implant is shortened
The injection port is connected to the fill tube and secured with a silk tie.
The injection port is ready for insertion